

45 Rosehill Crescent LENA VALLEY, TAS

3

2

SOLD

This 2012 built David Wakefield designed home will impress from the moment you enter. Dual living areas, high end fixtures and finishes, multiple decks, gorgeous sunny position, privacy the list is endless.

Lenah Valley is a highly sought after area and those seeking the convenience of the location but struggling with the older style homes that require extensive renovations will be delighted with this offering.

Nestled amongst other high calibre contemporary homes number 45 features a private aspect via an over-wide driveway (complete with turning circle) and is an executive unpack and relax proposition.

There are many captivating features of this home even the light fittings have been selected with thoughtful attention to detail and are a gorgeous design feature. You will also be

Angelina Drobina

Principal

0416163014

Fixtures & Fittings are for display only, not to scale.
 Produced by Open2view.com

