The mesmerising views of the Derwent River and our majestic Mount Wellington are truly showcased at this gorgeous property. Offering peace and tranquillity all day long (without a power line in site to detract from the view) your nights will be spent in heaven here observing the ever changing twinkling vista of the surrounding suburbs.

One of two executive townhouses on site, this home is deceptively large and would suit a wide array of purchasers from very lucky first home buyers through to executive young retirees looking for a 'lock and leave' low maintenance home seven minutes from the city.

You are literally a couple of moments stroll from the beautiful Rosny esplanade - a heavenly walk to take your four legged treasure on - imagine your pooch strutting along the water's edge making new friends along the way. There is also a fantastic walk all the way to the Bellerive Esplanade - what an enjoyable way to walk off a blissful lunch at 3 Little Du
